Subject to all other provisions of this title and code.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the Mayor, and compliance with all laws pertaining thereto.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Councilman Ehlers:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 98, 1954

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, as adopted by General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, and more particularly Title 7, Chapter 8, Section 7-804, regulating fees for dance matrons and fixing a time when the said amendment shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Section 1. That Title 7, Chapter 8, Section 7-804, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows, to-wit:

7-804. MATRON.—It shall be unlawful for any person to give, manage, conduct, or superintend any dance, or ball, in the city, for which a permit is required by this chapter, without having present in such dance hall, or ball room, a matron duly designated by the chief of police, as hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of said chief of police, at the time any application is made to him for a permit under the authority of this section, to name some matronly woman of exemplary character to be present at such dance or ball, and her name, together with the day and the hour when such dance is to take place, shall be stated in such permit.

The duty of such matron shall be to preserve order and decorum, and to see that no lewd, immoral, illegal, boisterous, or unseemly conduct is indulged in, or vulgar, profane, or indecent language indulged in by any person operating or attending such dance or ball. Such matron shall have the right and she is hereby clothed with authority to cause any person who offends, as aforesaid, or offends against the decent proprieties of a social gathering in the matter of dress, manners, actions, or language, to be ejected from the room or building in which such dance or ball is being held, and to carry out her orders in that behalf, she may call to her assistance any policeman, or the persons holding such permit, whose duty it shall be to enforce her orders in so ejecting such offending person. The matron so designated, shall be entitled to charge and receive ten dollars for her attendance and services at every such entertainment, which fee shall be paid in advance by the person giving or managing the same, and it shall be unlawful for any person giving or conducting such dance or ball to proceed to open and operate the same until such matron is present in the room designated and her fee shall have been paid; Provided, That any matron who has been assigned to duty at any such dance or ball, who shall not be present at the hour stated in such permit for the dance to begin, shall forfeit her assignment thereto, and in any such instance the police headquarters shall be notified at once to send another matron, or if none is available, to detail a police officer so to serve on such occasion, and such dance shall not start or continue until the person so assigned appears and remains on duty.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval by the Mayor, and compliance with all laws pertaining thereto.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Councilman Radel:

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

By Councilman Radel:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 100, 1954

AN ORDINANCE to amend the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, as adopted by General Ordinance No. 140, 1951, and more particularly Title 8, Chapter 6, Sections 8-602 and 8-603 thereof, by repealing sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 8-602 and subsection (2) of Section 8-603 of the Building Code, Electrical Rules and Regulations, and providing certain standards, rules, regulations and interpretations, and fixing a time when the said amendments shall take effect.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. That Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-602, sub-sections (2) and (3), and Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-603, sub-section (2) of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 2. That Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-602, sub-section (2) of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, be enacted as follows, to wit:

(2) The Building Commissioner is charged with and shall attend the filing with the office of the City Clerk, as they are published and become available, two (2) copies of the latest rules, regulations and standards prescribed by the National Electrical Code, being the rules, regulations and standards of the National Board of Fire Underwriters for electrical wiring and apparatus.

Section 3. That Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-602, sub-section (3) of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, be enacted as follows, to wit:

(3) The Building Commissioner is empowered and directed to interpret said National Electrical Code and/or any section thereof where any ambiguity appears or dispute arises. Said Building Commissioner shall file with the office of the City Clerk two (2) copies of any such interpretation.

Section 4. That Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-602, sub-section (4) of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, be enacted as follows, to wit:

(4) The Building Commissioner may, where in his considered opinion necessity for more rigid rules, regulations and standards exists and where such opinion is approved by the Board of Public Safety, modify said National Electrical Code so as to raise requirements above those of said code. Said Building Commissioner shall file with the office of the City Clerk two (2) copies of any such rule, regulation and/or standard so approved.

Section 5. That Title 8, Chapter 6, Section 8-603, sub-section (2) of the Municipal Code of Indianapolis, 1951, be enacted as follows, to wit:

(2) The Building Commissioner is charged with and shall attend to the filing with the office of the City Clerk as they are published and become available two (2) copies of the latest standards of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., Electrical Equipment List.
