INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

By Councilman Francis:

RESOLUTION NO. 1, 1957

WHEREAS: Pursuant to the findings of an objective and factual report, made by the Health and Welfare Council of Indianapolis and Marion County submitted to Mayor Phillip Bayt January 23, 1957, document by unimpeachable statistics the social need for the continuation of Lockfield Gardens as a low rent public housing project. and,

WHEREAS: This report was concurred in by a recommendation of the Health and Welfare Council Board through a detailed memorandum to Mayor Phillip Bayt with the recommendation that _____ "and that now it is time for us to take over its direction under our Housing Authority of the City of Indianapolis on a strictly local level." and

WHEREAS: Contrary to the implications of certain public officials, The Indianapolis Public Housing Authority by Resolution No. 233 dated and passed December 14, 1956, recommended as follows: "BE IT RESOLVED, that on the basis of the facts and information made available at this time, the operation of the Lockfield Gardens Housing Project be favorably considered for acceptance by the Housing Authority of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, conditioned, however, on the final disposition and settlement of the existing judgment in favor of the Public Housing Administration of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana." and,

WHEREAS: Lockfield Gardens disposition has unfortunately become a political issue by pro and con inferences and April the sixth has been designated by the Federal Housing Authority as the deadline for decisions on the part of the City of Indianapolis as to taking over Lockfield Gardens Apartments, and,

WHEREAS: An extension of sixty (60) days is possible and further that the delay and indecision is demoralizing to the welfare and security of the more than 2400 tenants in Lockfield Gardens, and,

WHEREAS: Lockfield Gardens is a tax owned low cost Housing Project for the benefit of the low income group and is owned by the taxpayers and should be preserved by and for the taxpayers as a low cost housing project, and further

WHEREAS: There has been a qualified decision by some city officials questioning the need for the continued existence and local control of Lockfield Gardens Project as a low cost housing unit: be it

RESOLVED: (1) That the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis hold a public hearing as to the need for Lockfield Gardens as a low cost Housing project and on the issues as to the Indianapolis Public Housing Authority, taking it over and operating it under the present existing Public Housing Law.

(2) That the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis hereby designates that a committee of its members be appointed to make a first hand investigation of the proposal of the Federal Housing

Administration for the transfer of Lockfield Gardens to the Indianapolis Public Housing Authority.

(3) That such appointed committee be designated and authorized to make a study of and recommendations for plans of operation under the Indianapolis Public Housing Authority in conjunction with that Authority, which said operational plans shall secure the continued operation of the project on a strictly local level outside the realm of politics as a low rent housing project.

(4) That pursuant and subject to the conclusion sections 1, 2, and 3 above, the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis shall by appropriate ordinance authorize the Indianapolis Public Housing Authority to accept Lockfield Gardens on behalf of and in the name of the City of Indianapolis from the Federal Public Housing Administration.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Public Parks.

By Councilman Francis:

RESOLUTION NO. 2, 1957

BE IT RESOLVED: That the President of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis is hereby designated and authorized to forthwith appoint the committee referred to in resolution No. 1 and that said committee is hereby instructed and directed to make such investigations as called for in said resolution and to report back to this council with all deliberate speed.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Public Parks.
