Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

By Councilman McGill:

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 43, 1958

AN ORDINANCE recognizing the 500 Festival and authorizing street concessions and booths for the festival period in certain public streets of the City.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1. The Indianapolis 500 Mile Race has long been an institution in the City of Indianapolis and the City and all civic leaders and merchants desire to create a carnival and festive atmosphere in this city immediately prior to the said 500 Mile Race.

Section 2. Accordingly, notwithstanding the provisions of any other ordinance, there shall be authorized and permitted the erection of booths, stands, and concessions for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours prior to the day of the race in an area of the City of Indianapolis, bounded as follows:

On the North by Sixteenth Street; on the East by Delaware Street; on the West by Illinois Street; and on the South by Maryland Street.

Concessionaires shall be designated by the Board of Public Works with the assistance and recommendations of the "500" Festival

Associates, Inc. Persons so nominated by the Board of Public Works shall have the exclusive right to sell any merchandise authorized in a list approved by said Board of Public Works. Streamer badges shall be provided and shall designate such concessionaires and all prices shall be listed and posted in accordance with a schedule to be approved by said Board of Public Works upon the recommendation of the Festival Committee.

Section 3. This Ordinance shall be effective only within the forty-eight hour period immediately preceding the running of the 500 Mile Race.

Section 4. The purpose of this Ordinance is to encourage the raising of funds by civic committees, without cost to the taxpayers, to encourage and create activity in the downtown area of the City of Indianapolis, just ahead of said Race.

Section 5. Any persons conducting concessions violating provisions of this Ordinance by charging prices in excess of the approved prices, or selling unauthorized merchandise, or conducting business without wearing the streamer badges provided for in this Ordinance, shall be deemed in violation thereof, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not to exceed Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00).
