You will also find attached thereto a communication to me from the Corporation Council of the City of Indianapolis requesting me to recommend the passage of said ordinance.

City Controller.

April 3, 1922.

Mr. Joseph L. Hogue,
City Controller,

City of Indianapolis.

Dear Sir—I beg to submit herewith an ordinance amending Line 3 of Section 4 of General Ordinance No. 76, 1919, which amendment increases the salary of the Assistant City Attorney from Fifteen Hundred Dollars to Twenty-Five Hundred Dollars per year and calls for an appropriation of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars for the additional salary for the remainder of the year of 1922, believing that the increase in salary provided for in this ordinance is justifiable.

I respectfully request you to recommend its passage.

Very truly yours,

TAYLOR E. GRONIGER,

Corporation Counsel, City of Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Indiana, April 3, 1922.

To the President and Members of the Common Council, City of Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen—I hand you herewith General Ordinance No. 34, 1922, amending Section 1 of General Ordinance No. 65, 1921, and providing for a bond issue of Thirty-Six Thousand Five Hundred ($36,500.00) Dollars to pay the City's part of the cost of improving connecting links on West Washington Street, Indiana Avenue and Madison Avenue. Connections to extend from improvement already made to continuations of said roads as hard surface highways beyond the corporate line of said City, in accordance with agreements with the County under act of the General Assembly approved March 20th, 1921, and repealing General Ordinance No. 13, 1922.

It is necessary for said ordinance to be repealed and this ordinance to be passed due to the fact that in Ordinance No. 13 the amending clause, through some inadvertance, the amending clause was omitted therefrom.

I respectfully request that the attached ordinance be passed under suspension of the rules as the work has been done and the contractors are entitled to their money.

Respectfully submitted,

JOS. L. HOGUE,

March 20, 1922.

To the President and Members of the Common Council, City of Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen—I hand you herewith a communication from the

Dear Sir—I am directed by the Board of Public Works to submit for your approval and transmission to the Common Council, an ordinance correcting the title of certain positions in the Department of Public Works, and creating the position of Assistant Clerk and appropriating the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) per year for the salary of said position, and increasing the salary of Record Clerk to Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00) per year.

Yours truly,

GEO. O. HUTSELL,
Clerk, Board of Public Works.

Indianapolis, Indiana, March 15, 1922.

To the Board of Public Works:

In order to correct the title of positions in Board of Work office, I would suggest that an ordinance be submitted to the Council to create the position of an assistant clerk in said office at $1,200.00 per year.

Said position is now filled by Grace Guess and she is receiving salary from the fund appropriated for bookkeeper. Said bookkeeper salary being $1,500.00 per year, none of which is being paid out for that purpose.

And in order to equalize salaries in the office, I would suggest that the Record Clerk salary be fixed at $1,200.00 per year. The said $200.00 increase being used from the $300.00 left over from the $1,500.00 appropriated for bookkeeper's salary.

GEO. O. HUTSELL,
Clerk, Board of Public Works.
