RESOLUTION NO. 5, 1962

WHEREAS, in and during the month of June, 1962, the City Hall was vacated and no longer occupied as the center of our city government, where it has been conducted for the past fifty years; and

WHEREAS, the City Hall is a classic example of Greek Ionic architecture and is the only example representative of our City's past history; and

WHEREAS, we, the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, believe it is for the best interests of our citizens and the public benefit that the City Hall be preserved and continued for public use; and

WHEREAS, the City Hall was designed and constructed for public use and its history of public use should be perpetuated as a symbol of the City's historical past;

Section 1. That the City Hall of Indianapolis, Indiana, in and for the best interests of the citizens should continue to be used as a public building for the benefit of all citizens.

Section 2. That the City Hall has a charm of historical value and culture to its citizens.

Section 3. That the City of Indianapolis has grown into a metropolitan city of greater means and there is great need for a museum and archives building to store and display the culture of the past and to develop our downtown cultural center for the benefit of all citizens, young and old.

Adopted by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, this 19th day of November, 1962.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT H. LOSCHE,
Mayor
