INTRODUCTION OF GENERAL ORDINANCES

GENERAL ORDINANCE NO. 56, 1964

Introduced by Councilmen Kuykendall & Cummings

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting discrimination in connection with housing units because of race, color, religion, ancestry, or national origin by owners, lessees, sub-lessees, assignees, managing agents, real estate buyers, real estate salesmen or agents and lenders and prohibiting discrimination in the sale, lease, sub-lease, rental, assignment or other transfer of the title, leasehold or other interest in any housing unit to any person because of race, color, religion, ancestry or national origin and providing duties and procedures for the Commission of Human Rights of the City of Indianapolis for the enforcement thereof and providing penalties.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I.

(a) The population of the City of Indianapolis consists of people of every race, color, religion, ancestry and national origin, many of whom are compelled to live in circumscribed and segregated areas, under sub-standard, unhealthy, unsafe, unsanitary and over-crowded living conditions, because of discrimination in the sale, lease, rental and financing of housing;

(b) These conditions have caused increased mortality, disease, crime, vice and juvenile delinquency, fires and the risk of fire, inter-group tensions, and other evils, thereby resulting in great injury to the public safety, public health and general welfare of the City of Indianapolis and reducing its productive capacity;

(c) The harmful effects produced by discrimination in housing also increase the cost of government and reduce the public revenues, thus imposing financial burdens upon the public for the relief and amelioration of the conditions so created;

(d) Discrimination in housing results in other forms of discrimination and segregation, including racial segregation in the public schools and other public facilities, which are prohibited by the Constitution of the United States of America, and are against the laws and policy of the State of Indiana and the City of Indianapolis.

SECTION II. DECLARATION OF POLICY

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the City of Indianapolis, in the exercise of its police power for the protection of the public safety, public health, and general welfare, for the maintenance of business and good government and for the promotion of the City's trade, commerce and manufacturing, to assure equal opportunity to all persons to live in decent housing facilities regardless of race, color, religion, ancestry or national origin, and to that end to prohibit discrimination in housing by any person including real estate brokers, real estate salesmen and agents, owners of real property and lending institutions.

As used in this ordinance, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this section:

(a) Commission. The term "Commission" means the Commission of Human Rights of the City of Indianapolis established pursuant to Ordinance Number 9 effective February 19, 1953.

It also includes but is not limited to, any owner, lessor, assignor, builder, manager, broker, divisions, authorities, boards and commissions.

(g) Real Estate Broker. The term "Real Estate Broker" means any natural person, partnership, association or corporation, who for a fee or other valuable consideration, sells, purchases, exchanges or rents, or negotiates, or offers or attempts to negotiate, the sale, purchase, exchange or rental of the real property of another, or holds himself out as engaged in the business of selling, purchasing, exchanging or renting the real property of another, or collects rental for the use of the real property of another.
