DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 21, 1913.

Hon. Harry R. Wallace, City Controller:

DEAR SIR: Kindly request the Common Council in the ordinary way to appropriate the sum of $6,291.05, to pay the judgment rendered against the city on account of the asphalt contract made with the Barber Asphalt Co. in the last administration, where the City applied a certain portion of the funds in its hands on the West Michigan Street resurfacing contract upon the outstanding obligation.

The Appellate Court just recently affirmed the case by which we were given the credit which we claim against this account, and the amount stated in the letter is the net balance due after taking the credit which we claimed against the asphalt bill.

I would be obliged if you will have the money appropriated for the express purpose of paying this judgment, or to our department for the paying of this judgment. I take it that it is not absolutely necessary that it be appropriated, but take it that you prefer to have the specific appropriation for your protection. I would be glad to have this done at the next meeting of the Council, next Monday night.

Very truly yours,

MERLE N. A. WALKER,
City Attorney.
