PROPOSAL NO. 568, 1983. This proposal transfers $30,600 for the Juvenile Detention Center to purchase laundry equipment. Councillor Holmes pointed out that there will be a bond sometime in April and this equipment could be included, thereby retaining the money in the County General Fund. Mr. Richard Kramer, Administrator at the Juvenile Detention Center, explained that the Center currently has the laundry serviced at a cost of approximately 35 cents per pound. The Center wants to purchase large capacity washers, because there is not enough room to add regular capacity machines. Councillor West moved, seconded by Councillor Borst, to amend Proposal No. 568, 1983, by deleting $26,000 that is being requested for the laundry equipment and to include that amount in the bond issue at a later time. Councillor Brinkman called for the question and the motion failed by voice vote. Councillor Nickell moved, seconded by Councillor Howard, for adoption. This proposal was recommended for passage by the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee by a vote of 3-1. The President called for the vote and Proposal No. 568, 1983, was adopted on the following roll call vote; viz:
