Respectfully,

ROBERT H. TYNDALL,

Mayor

October 28, 1946.

Mr. Frank J. Noll, Jr., City Clerk
City Hall
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Noll:

I have examined General Ordinance No. 115, 1946, as amended. This Ordinance covers the subject-matter of contracts made by the City of Indianapolis, its departments, officials and agents and provides for provisions in such contracts against discrimination by the contracting party against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, creed or national origin.

The subject-matter of contracts entered into by a municipal corporation is fully and extensively covered by the statutes of the State of Indiana, which statutes provide what the terms and conditions of such contracts shall be. Among other things, Chapter 270 of the Acts of 1933, by Section One thereof, provides that contracts of municipal corporations shall contain provisions by which the contractor agrees:

“(a) That in hiring of employees for the performance of work under this contract or any subcontract hereunder, no contractor, subcontractor, nor any person acting on behalf of such contractor or subcontractor, shall, by reason of race or color, discriminate against any citizen of the state of Indiana who is qualified and available to perform the work to which the employment relates;

(b) That no contractor, subcontractor, nor any person on his behalf shall, in any manner, discriminate against or intimidate any employee hired for the performance of work under this contract on account of race or color."

B. R. S. 53-103

Consequently, the subject-matter of this Ordinance and its provisions are already fully covered by the statutes of the State of Indiana and it could serve no useful purpose for the City of Indianapolis to enact an Ordinance which would add nothing to the existing law as enacted by the legislature.

One of the purposes of the acts of the legislature covering municipal contracts is, that such contracts may be uniform in all the cities of the State. For each city to attempt to cover the provisions of its contracts and make them different from the provisions as set forth by the State law would raise a serious question of validity. However, such action, even if valid, would in my opinion be unadvisable and productive of confusion.

I have throughout my administration as Mayor followed the policy enunciated by this ordinance in the employment of city personnel. While the percentage of colored residents in Indianapolis is between 13% and 14%, 27% of the total regular employees of the city are colored. These employees include members of the Board of Health, Assistant City Attorney, Clerk-Typists, Draftsmen, Police Lieutenant, Fire Captain and Lieutenant and several skilled labor jobs.

My policy has been and is to recognize qualifications and ability regardless of race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry. However, in view of the fact that the subject-matter of this ordinance is already in force relative to city contracts, by virtue of a state law and because I feel sincerely that this ordinance can serve no useful purpose but would add only confusion and would not accomplish the things which its sponsors have planned for it, I am returning General Ordinance No. 115 herewith without my signature.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT H. TYNDALL,
Mayor
