Mr. Thomas C. Hasbrook
President, City-County Council of Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear President Hasbrook:

I wish to veto Proposal No. 154, 1973 of the City-Council Council of Indianapolis Indiana and I am submitting this message in brief explanation of this veto.

Proposal No. 154 proposes City-County General Ordinance No. 21, 1973 to provide for parking on the southwest side of Indiana Avenue from West Street to Stadium Drive except during the rush hours of 6 A.M. to 9 A. M. and 3 P.M. to 6 P.M., Monday through Friday.

The proposers of this ordinance seek to stimulate business activity in the Indiana Avenue neighborhood and I share their enthusiasm for this objective. At the same time, I am certain that all citizens of Indianapolis would want to know that the Department of Development and Planning and the Department of Transportation have worked diligently to provide a sound basis for economic and civic progress in the Indiana Avenue area. The Midtown Sub-Area Plan has been proposed by the City and many neighborhood leaders have endorsed this plan.

Restoration of parking will create safety hazards and transportation congestion. Passage of this ordinance will set a precedent for additional attempts to seek economic activity by restoring parking to major streets and thoroughfares with all of the attendant hazards to public safety and very little assurance of new business for those seeking the advantages of curbside parking.

Surely the better course of action is private and public cooperation in providing additional off-street parking facilities, and this course of action has been proposed for Indiana Avenue. In addition, public and private planning efforts are absolutely necessary to stimulate economic vitality for neighborhood commercial centers. In my judgment, curbside parking will not save declining businesses but does offer an easy way, temporarily, to forget or ignore the entire neighborhood through momentarily popular but non-constructive action.

I appeal for your support in upholding this veto.

Respectfully,

RICHARD G. LUGAR
Mayor
