Councillor Boyd stated that he did not get a proposal introduced as a formal ordinance, but would like to read a resolution, co-sponsored by Councillor Borst, and ask for the Council's consent to support the initiative. He read the following resolution:

Whereas, the law of the land requires that the population of the United States be counted every ten years, and

Whereas, the year 2000 is a census taking year, and though having a very good start, there is now evidence that central Indiana has begun to lag in its response, and

Whereas, the information gathered from such enumeration is calculated into many formulae that help determine how certain goods, services, services, and government programs will be distributed and applied, and

Whereas, the United States government has an excellent record of maintaining the confidentiality of information submitted by citizens as part of the census process; now, therefore:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE
CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS AND OF MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. The Indianapolis City-County Council reminds citizens of their citizenship responsibility and encourages all citizens in the Indianapolis area, who have not already done so, to fill out and return their census forms this week.

PROPOSAL NO. 192, 2000. Councillor Dowden reported that the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee heard Proposal No. 192, 2000 on March 22, 2000. The proposal, sponsored by Councillor Dowden, appoints Matthew B. Hooker to the Citizens Police Complaint Board. By a 6-3 vote, the Committee reported the proposal to the Council with the recommendation that it do pass.

Councillor Dowden stated that since the Committee's actions, the minority leader has distributed a mailing to several individuals to inflame the community to oppose this appointment. He stated that the writings of the minority leader have also been a direct attack against himself personally. He stated that he has been involved for a long time in finding solutions for community issues involving public safety. Councillor Dowden stated that he has worked with many community groups and was instrumental in creating the Citizens Police Complaint Board. He added that many of the statements in the minority leader's four-page document that has been widely distributed are false, especially many of those statements considering the Meridian Street "brawl." He said that the "brawl" became more of a political issue, rather than a community issue, and should not be re-addressed after it has been resolved. He added that the police department took immediate steps to investigate and resolve the issue, but many outside sources made it a political battle and took the incident out of the normal disciplinary process. There was a good board in place at that time, and the police department worked as quickly as possible to resolve that issue and make changes, and the matter does not need to be revisited.

Councillor Dowden stated that the minority leader's letter claims that "William Dowden is circumventing the intent and spirit of the law by making a political and out-of-process appointment." He said that he spent many hours with the Citizens Complaint Process Working Group on the proposal during the drafting process, and he understands the purpose and intent of the law. He stated that this proposal serves the spirit and intent of that proposal and the board itself. Councillor Dowden addressed the comments made in Councillor Boyd's letter regarding the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee meeting held on Thanksgiving Eve, and stated that there was no intent to hold a subversive meeting. He said that Councillor Boyd is simply trying to be inflammatory and stir up a controversial issue where one does not exist.

Councillor Dowden stated that it is the responsibility of the Council to insure that appointments are made to various boards, and the Citizens Police Complaint Board was saying that they could not meet because of the lack of a quorum. The Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee made an effort to make reappointments immediately to fill open board positions. The Committee found out in February that one of those appointees did not want to be reappointed and one of those appointees resigned. One of those appointees was a Democrat, and the other a Republican. The majority leader asked the board for a list of possible candidates, and the task force apparently was not operating to bring about a new list with newly interviewed candidates. He stated that the Committee, in order to act in a timely manner, chose a candidate who is eminently qualified to serve in this capacity. Councillor Dowden moved, seconded by Councillor Borst, for adoption.

Councillor Borst stated that a lengthy public hearing was held at the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee meeting on March 22, 2000, at which many people testified. He stated that there are some changes needed in the ordinance, but that this has been a very long and involved process with a lot of miscommunication. He said that the board knew in August of 1999 that these two individuals were going to resign, but did not provide a list for the complaint board of possible replacements. At the January 12th meeting of the Committee, the proposals before the Committee were for individuals who had resigned, and the chairman of the complaint board called a meeting to make some changes in the ordinance. Again, the board failed to provide a list of possible candidates. Several attempts were made to obtain a list of possible candidates, and no such list was forthcoming. Councillor Borst said that he instructed Councillor Dowden, Chairman of the Public Safety and Criminal Justice Committee, to move forward and find suitable candidates to serve on this board to fill the vacancies. Two of the board members had not fulfilled their training requirements, and they may need to be replaced, as well, if they do not rectify this situation. Councillor Borst stated that Mr. Hooker is a very qualified person to serve on this board, and is just the kind of neighborhood person that is needed for this service. Councillor Borst stated that after the Committee approved the appointment, then the list finally emerged. He added that there are some definite changes that need to be made in the ordinance and more effort needs to be directed at keeping the list of candidates up-to-date and insuring that candidates follow through with required training. However, he does not feel this appointment should be delayed until those changes can be made, because the appointee is highly qualified to serve in this capacity.

Councillor Boyd stated that he will not personalize his comments, as it would be a diversion from the real issue of this proposal. The issue does not relate to the candidate who has been selected, but to the process which produces this person. He stated that the task forces in each of the police districts were given the challenge to come up with a pool of nominees, and although that process may be imperfect, it did work during the first cycle. This list came from combined efforts of deputy chiefs and community citizens. The candidate involved in this proposal has not come through that task force process and perhaps does not even live in an area serviced by the police department. Councillor Boyd asked for consent of the Council to allow public testimony from four individuals on this matter: Sam Jones, co-chair of the Citizens Complaint Board Task Force; Becky Childers, current chairman of the board; Larry O'Connor, Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; and State Representative Bill Crawford.

President SerVaas stated that in order to allow public testimony at this time the rules of the Council will need to be suspended by a majority vote, as no public hearing is scheduled on the agenda. The public hearing for this proposal was held during the Committee meeting on March 22, 2000.

Councillor Borst stated that Councillor Boyd has been criticizing members of the majority party for going outside of the process to make this appointment, and yet he is requesting that the Council go outside of the normal process of Council rules in this case. He said that, as a public hearing has already been held on this matter, he does not see the need for four individuals to testify at this meeting. He stated that even though this is out of order, he is willing to bend on the process to allow one of the aforementioned people the opportunity to provide public testimony.

Councillor Boyd stated that there are many more present who would like to speak, and that he believes he is trying to be considerate in allowing only four individuals to speak. He stated that these four individuals are respected members of the community and have been involved in this process. He stated that two members of the majority party have spent 25 minutes stating their case, and he believes opposition should have the same amount of time. He moved, seconded by Councillor Talley, to waive the rules of the Council to allow for public testimony.

President SerVaas stated that the purpose of having public hearings before the Committees is to help streamline the process and allow for the Council to handle business in an efficient and timely manner. He stated that debate and testimony is welcome during Council meetings from Council members, but that the public has ample opportunities for testimony during Committee hearings. He stated that Council rules prohibit public testimony during portions of the agenda where public hearings have already been held. In order to receive public testimony, the rules of the Council must be waived.

President SerVaas called for a vote on the motion to waive the rules. The motion failed on the following roll call vote; viz:

14 YEAS: Black, Boyd, Brents, Conley, Douglas, Gibson, Gray, Horseman, Knox, Moriarty Adams, Nytes, Sanders, Short, Talley

15 NAYS: Bainbridge, Borst, Bradford, Cockrum, Coonrod, Coughenour, Dowden, Hinkle, Langsford, Massie, Schneider, SerVaas, Smith, Soards, Tilford

14 YEAS: Black, Boyd, Brens, Conley, Douglas, Gibson, Gray, Horseman, Knox, Moriarty Adams, Nytes, Sanders, Short, Talley

15 NAYS: Bainbridge, Borst, Bradford, Cockrum, Coonrod, Coughenour, Dowden, Hinkle, Langsford, Massie, Schneider, SerVaas, Smith, Soards, Tilford

Councillor Boyd stated that this vote indicates that Republican Council members are against letting respected members of the community speak this evening.

President SerVaas stated that this is an incorrect statement, as the majority leader testified that he would be willing to waive the rules to allow for one speaker, but in the interest of time, did not feel four speakers were warranted when a public hearing had already been held.

Councillor Black stated that the rules have been waived before in this body, and this vote is an injustice to those who have taken the time to attend this meeting.

Councillor Short stated that no one is complaining about the particular appointee, but rather about the process. He stated that the rules have never been strictly adhered to in this Council body, and if this body wishes to suddenly be conscious of the rules, he will make sure that the rules are strictly adhered to from this point forward, and no speaker will be allowed to make statements during a non-public hearing portion of the agenda. He stated that the Chairman of the Committee has caused divisiveness in this body this evening through a lengthy discourse, when that time could have been better spent by allowing this public testimony.

Councillor Borst stated that the vote is not against allowing respected citizens to testify, but is against having a Council member who knows the rules invite citizens to come to the meeting under false pretences. The public hearing was held on March 22, 2000, and the vote is simply to uphold the Council's normal process. Councillor Borst moved, seconded by Councillor Dowden, to close debate and move the previous question.

Councillor Talley moved, seconded by Councillor Sanders, to return the proposal to Committee for further consideration. General Counsel Robert Elrod stated that this motion is out of order as the motion to close debate and move the previous question is on the floor. If this motion is defeated, then Councillor Talley's motion can then be considered.

Councillor Talley stated that he has a question to ask Larry O'Connor to better understand the process of selecting appointees for this board. He asked what Mr. O'Connor's understanding of this process is, and how changing that appointing process will affect the Indianapolis community. Mr. O'Connor stated that the Council has the authority to make these appointments. He added that the task force worked together for a long time, and the spirit of that committee concluded that the involvement of citizens is very important to the complaint process. It is good public policy to have qualified, educated individuals appointed to this board.

Councillor Bradford asked Mr. O'Connor if Mr. Hooker fits the qualifications to serve on this board and is a good representative of the community spirit he referred to. Mr. O'Connor stated that he is not prepared to speak in favor of or against any candidate, as he does not know these candidates.

The motion to close the debate and move the previous question carried on the following roll call vote; viz:

15 YEAS: Bainbridge, Borst, Bradford, Cockrum, Coonrod, Coughenour, Dowden, Hinkle, Langsford, Massie, Schneider, SerVaas, Smith, Soards, Tilford
14 NAYS: Black, Boyd, Brents, Conley, Douglas, Gibson, Gray, Horseman, Knox, Moriarty Adams, Nytes, Sanders, Short, Talley

Councillor Boyd asked Councillor Dowden if the candidate lives in an area serviced by the Indianapolis Police Department (IPD). Councillor Dowden stated that, as required by ordinance, the candidate lives in the Indianapolis Police Special Service District. Councillor Boyd asked if the area he lives in is actually serviced by IPD. Councillor Dowden stated that he lives in the Police Special Service District, and some services in this area have been contracted out to the Sheriff's Department.

President SerVaas asked for a vote on Proposal No. 192, 2000. Councillor Talley stated that he moved to strike the proposal and stated that this motion should take precedence. Mr. Elrod stated that the President did not recognize Councillor Talley's motion to strike, and a motion was just passed to close debate and move the previous question. This act makes Councillor Talley's motion out of order.

Councillor Black asked if one person will still be allowed to speak, as the majority leader conceded to earlier. President SerVaas stated that the motion to waive the rules and allow for public testimony was defeated, and no public testimony will be allowed.

Proposal No. 192, 2000 was adopted on the following roll call vote; viz:

15 YEAS: Bainbridge, Borst, Bradford, Cockrum, Coonrod, Coughenour, Dowden, Hinkle, Langsford, Massie, Schneider, SerVaas, Smith, Soards, Tilford
14 NAYS: Black, Boyd, Brents, Conley, Douglas, Gibson, Gray, Horseman, Knox, Moriarty Adams, Nytes, Sanders, Short, Talley

Proposal No. 192, 2000 was retitled COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 54, 2000, and reads as follows:

CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 54, 2000

A COUNCIL RESOLUTION appointing Matthew B. Hooker to the Citizens Police Complaint Board.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY-COUNTY COUNCIL OF THE
CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS AND OF MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. As a member of the Citizens Police Complaint Board, the Council appoints:

Matthew B. Hooker

SECTION 2. The appointment made by this resolution is for a term ending December 31, 2003. The person appointed by this resolution shall serve at the pleasure of the Council and for sixty (60) days after the expiration of such term or until such earlier date as successor is appointed and qualifies.

Councillor Gray stated that he is disappointed in the President and the leadership of this Council and their disregard for the citizens this evening. President SerVaas stated that he takes full responsibility for the agenda and the procedure this evening.

Councillor Brents stated that she attended the task force meetings in the West District, and she feels any person serving on this board should go through the task force interviewing process.

President SerVaas stated that this debate is not about the particular candidate, but about the process in general. Issues arose because vacancies were not reported in a timely manner and lists were not kept up-to-date. The task force did not provide names of candidates for several months when asked. The list of names was not provided until after a candidate had been already been approved by the Committee.

Councillor Boyd stated that there are many inconsistencies in the way appointments are made to the various boards, and the Council needs to revisit this process. He added that the President is very inconsistent in the way the rules are adhered to in the appointment process.

Councillor Boyd moved, seconded by Councillor Short, for a five-minute recess. The motion carried by a unanimous voice vote.

President SerVaas recessed the meeting at 8:40 p.m. He reconvened the meeting at 8:49 p.m.
