To the Honorable President and
Members of the Common Council
of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen:

I have this day approved with my signature and delivered to Henry O. Goett, City Clerk, the following ordinances:

ORDINANCE No. 13, 1934.

City of Indianapolis.

AN ORDINANCE to regulate and to license solicitations for charitable, patriotic, religious or philanthropic purposes in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, providing for the creation and functioning of a Charity Solicitations Commission, designating a time when it shall become effective, and providing a penalty.

GENERAL ORDINANCE No. 15, 1934.

February
Eighth,
1934.

To the Honorable President and
Members of the Common Council
of the City of Indianapolis:

I am returning herewith, without my signature,

GENERAL ORDINANCE No. 102, 1933, Entitled,

“AN ORDINANCE defining alcoholic beverages, prohibiting the sale or offer for sale of false or mislabeled alcoholic beverages, providing a penalty for the violation thereof and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.”

Section 2 would make it unlawful to sell any alcoholic beverages unless the bottle or container bears a label specifying certain facts and, in the case of beer, if grain other than malted barley and hops is used, then it would be unlawful to sell the same unless such label contains the words “imitation beer” and specifies the ingredients used.

I have made some inquiry as to the ingredients used in beer manufactured in the United States and find that much of it contains rice or brewers’ grits in addition to malted barley and hops. Such beer is not an imitation beer and it would be misleading and unjust, in my opinion, to so label it.

I have made further inquiry into the activities of the United States Government upon the subject of labels, and find that the federal code authority has already adopted a resolution dealing with the labeling of the contents of bottled beer and that in all probability, in a short time, the Government of the United States will issue a regulation governing beer labels.

I also find that the Federal Alcohol Control Committee issued, yesterday morning, liquor regulations covering whiskey and labels and that, effective Feb. 10, 1934, the U. S. Internal Revenue Department will require a federal stamp upon every bottle of blended whiskeys, brandies, rum, gins, cordials and liquers, alcohol in pints and other distilled spirits. One who violates the government regulations may be prosecuted in federal court and these regulations will be uniform throughout the United States.

Respectfully yours,

REGINALD H. SULLIVAN,
Mayor.
