REPORTS FROM CITY OFFICERS.

From City Controller:

February 14th, 1920.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen: I am handing you herewith an ordinance asking for the appropriation of Fifty-two Dollars to the Department of Finance to reimburse Floyd Beitman for theater licenses taken out by him January 10th, 1920.

At the time Mr. Beitman obtained these licenses he was charging an admission price of ten cents on his two theaters, known as the Garden Theater and the Tacoma Theater. Since that time, however, he has raised his price of admission to over ten cents and has taken out two licenses at One Hundred and One Dollars each, and is therefore entitled to refund of the licenses first secured.

I recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Yours very truly,

ROBERT H. BRYSON,

City Controller.

February 14th, 1920.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen: I am handing you herewith, an ordinance appropriating the sum of Sixty-four Dollars and Fifty Cents ($64.50) to the Department of Finance of the purpose of paying Walter M. Carpenter for services rendered, as stenographer to the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, as per their Res. No. 2, 1920.

I recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Yours very truly,

ROBERT H. BRYSON,

To the Honorable President and Members of the Common Council, Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen: I submit you herewith an ordinance asking you to authorize the City Controller to make a temporary loan for Two Hundred Fifty Thousand ($250,000.00) Dollars, and appropriating the sum of Two Hundred Fifty-four Thousand Three Hundred Seventy-five ($254,375.00) Dollars for payment thereof when due.

Owing to the uncertainty of the payment of taxes this year on account of the injunction suit now pending, it is necessary for the city to make this loan for payment of salaries.

I recommend the passage of this ordinance.

Yours very truly,

ROBERT H. BRYSON,
City Controller.

From Department of Law:

February 16th, 1920.

Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen: I enclose herewith General Ordinance amending General Ordinance No. 37, 1919, by adding thereto section 1 $\frac{1}{2}$, defining the meaning of the word "taxicab."

Under General Ordinance No. 37 the word "taxicab" was not defined. We feel that there is no absolute necessity for such definition in the ordinance, but the ordinance has been attacked in the courts several times on this ground, and in order that there can be no successful attack under any circumstances because of this failure, we propose this amendment.

Very truly yours,

HARRY E. YOCKEY,
Assistant City Attorney.

February 16th, 1920.

To the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis:

Gentlemen: I herewith enclose an ordinance disannexing certain territory from the City of Indianapolis.

This has become necessary because of recent litigation filed against the City of Indianapolis.

Very truly yours,

HARRY E. YOCKEY,
Assistant City Attorney.

From the Board of Public Works:

February 14th, 1920.

Mr. George O. Hutsell, City Clerk, City:

From the Special Committee appointed to investigate the Department of Purchase:

Indianapolis, Ind., February 16, 1920.

To the President and Members of the Common Council:

Gentlemen: We, your Special Committee, which was heretofore appointed to investigate and report on certain conditions alleged to exist in the Department of Public Purchase of the City of Indianapolis, beg leave to submit the following report and suggestions:

Your committee has conferred with Mr. Ritter, the Purchasing Agent, upon several occasions and at some length; it has also reviewed such of the records in said department bearing upon the matters hereinafter discussed, as were found accessible.

During the year of 1919 the purchases handled through said department totaled One Million Eighty Seven Thousand Dollars; this entailed a vast amount of work by said department which, in the main, we believe has been handled efficiently and advantageously for the city.

We believe, however, that in some particulars proper attention is not given either to the letter or spirit of the State Statute, by virtue of which said department exists, and that in other matters proper attention has not been given to procedure, and no adequate records made and kept of various transactions.

Under the above named law the head of the Department of Public Purchase is an agent only, acting for the various executive departments or officers authorized by law to purchase supplies and materials for city use, and acting under such direction, rules and regulations as may be given or established by the various executive departments or officers. The present Purchasing Agent, we believe, has failed to fully grasp this fact. Under the law he has no right to execute contracts, but the same must be signed by the various boards or executive officers. In some specific instances the Purchasing Agent has, we believe, exceeded the authority given him by law in this respect. This should be immediately discontinued.

The law requires that the Purchasing Agent devise such forms, invoices, receipts, books, papers and files, together with such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper operating of the department. The law also provides that no personal property belonging to the city shall be sold without an appraisement; it also provides that when a sum of more than $2,000.00 is to be paid for purchase of any property, the same shall not take place unless such purchase is specifically authorized by ordinance. In some instances, neither of these two provisions have been complied with. Purchases amounting to more than $2,000.00 have been made without action of the Common Council, and personal property belonging to the city has been sold without appraisal having been first obtained. The only such unauthorized purchase, however, that we find, was an automobile, in which case the Clerk of the Board of Works neglected to send the Ordinance to the Council, and for which oversight he assumes full responsibility.

The Department of Public Purchase is not entirely or solely at fault in such cases. The obligation rests primarily with the executive department immediately concerned with the purchases or sales, to see that they comply with the law. The obligation, however, is upon the Purchasing Department to ascertain in the case of sale of property that the appraisalment has been made, and in the case of purchase of property that the Council has acted.

The present department has simply followed precedents of former administrations in these particulars. However, we deem it absolutely necessary both for the protection of the public interest and the welfare of the administration that the Department of Public Purchase, as well as every other department or officer, adhere strictly to both the spirit and the letter of these provisions.

The Purchasing Agent should prescribe a form of requisition which, in the case of purchase amounting to more than $2,000,000, would require the certificate of the Executive Board or officer that such expenditure has been authorized by ordinance. He should refuse to honor any requisition until it bore such certificate. This would prevent future abuses of the law in that respect.

No comprehensive or adequate records are kept respecting sales of personal property. Such sales are made without permanent records as to dates, name of purchaser, appraisals or receipts of money. We are unable in certain cases to obtain either from the Purchasing Department or the Board making such sales either the dates of the sales or the names of the purchasers. In other cases the funds realized from the sales have been turned over to the Board by the Purchasing Agent, and have remained for weeks in the hands of the Board before reaching the office of the Controller. In one instance we find in the hands of the Board of Public Works a voucher of the town of Whiteland for the sum of $100.00, dated June 16th, 1919, and which we are informed was in payment for the purchase of an oil tank wagon. This vouchers has remained all these months in the possession of the Board of Works when it should have been immediately forwarded to the City Controller. The Purchasing Agent should receive no money upon these sales, or, if he does so, shall remit directly and promptly to the Controller, and so notify the particular executive board having to do with such sale.

If the responsibility rests upon the various executive boards to establish the proper procedure, forms and records for the disposal of personal property in compliance with the law, it rests equally with the Purchasing Department to see that such forms and procedures have been performed and complied with before consummating any sales. These details should receive immediate attention in order to remove all possibility of carelessness, fraud or dishonesty in the handling of city property and funds.

The law provides that the Purchasing Agent, the Assisting Purchasing Agent and each other officer or appointee in said department shall, within ten days after their appointments, execute bonds which shall be filed with the City Controller. No such bonds are on file except those of the Purchasing Agent, and the Assisting Purchasing Agent. This, of course, should be remedied at once.

The above are the more important details which, in our estimation, need immediate attention. We realize the vast amount of work entailed in this department and, as first above stated, we believe the department has been operating in most details efficiently and economically. However, the rights, responsibilities and liabilities of such department are fixed by statute and it is absolutely essential that the law be complied with even to the minute details and even though some matters might be considered as "red tape".

Your committee has advised the Mayor of these conditions, and is informed that he is taking steps to rectify them.

We recommend that a copy of this report be forwarded to the Mayor with a request that these matters be promptly remedied.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. PEAKE,
RUSSELL WILLSON,
LOUIS W. CARNEFIX.

Mr. Peake moved that the report of the committee be concurred in. The roll was called and the report of the committee was concurred in by the following vote:

Ayes, 8, viz.: Messrs. Brown, Carnefix, Furniss, Kirsch, Miller, Peake, Willson and President G. G. Schmidt.
