The blacksmiths shall each receive wages at the rate of three dollars ($3.00) per day.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Fees and Salaries.

By Mr. Owen:

General Ordinance No. 40—1911: An ordinance relating to the granting of licenses to fire insurance agents and their maintaining agencies or offices in the City of Indianapolis; determining who shall be deemed as agents; fixing the amount to be paid for such licenses; providing a specific use for such fund, and providing penalties for its violation.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, that it shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to engage in the business, trade, profession or calling of writing or placing fire insurance, as agent, sub-agent, or other representative of any fire insurance company, or for any fire insurance company to maintain an office or agency for the transaction of a fire insurance business in any form, within said city, without first procuring from said city a license for the transaction of such fire insurance business as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm, association or corporation desiring to engage in the business of soliciting, procuring, writing or placing, either directly or indirectly, any contract of fire insurance in the City of Indianapolis, shall make application so to do to the City Controller of said city, which application shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, giving the name or names and addresses of the companies for which said applicant is the duly accredited agent or sub-agent, and stating that said company or companies have been duly authorized by the Auditor of the State of Indiana to do business in said State.

Sec. 3. If, after making said application in the manner aforesaid, the City Controller finds the same to be regular and in due form, he shall issue a license to said applicant to act as an agent for the fire insurance company or companies so designated in the application, upon the payment by said applicant of one hundred dollars; said license so granted shall cover a period of one year from the date of issuance, and at the end of which time may be renewed upon said applicants making application aforesaid.

Sec. 4. In the event that any insurance company doing such business shall have more than one agent, agency or office operating such business within the limits of said city, each and every agent, agency or office transacting such business shall be so licensed; Provided, however, that solicitors employed by such insurance company, or its agent, or agency, either on salary or on commission, who shall have his office exclusively with said insurance company, agent or agency, by whom he is employed, and who shall give his entire time to such business, agency or employment, shall not be required to pay the license herein provided. But any person, firm, association or corporation, who shall have an office or separate place of business, where business for any such insurance company, agency or office is solicited, or policies delivered and contracts of insurance made or ordered, or which place of business shall be published as being a fire insurance agency, or any person who publishes that he is engaged in the fire insurance business, shall be held to be an agent within the meaning of this ordinance, and shall be required to pay the license hereinbefore provided; And, provided further, that this ordinance shall not apply to representatives of fire insurance companies who may be engaged in the work of a special agent, field man, inspector, or one charged with the duty of appointing agents; but representatives of said companies, so engaged, shall not be permitted to issue policies or contracts of fire insurance or to solicit such insurance or to perform any of the duties of a person regularly and lawfully engaged in the soliciting, procuring, or writing of fire insurance, without first obtaining a license as herein provided.

Sec. 5. All funds derived from the issuing of the aforesaid licenses shall be held and used exclusively for the creation, establishment and maintenance of a salvage corps, for the City of Indianapolis; and such fund shall be so used and applied whenever it shall reach an amount sufficient to properly equip and efficiently maintain the said salvage corps.

Sec. 6. Any person, firm, association, corporation or agency who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $300.00 for each and every offense, and each day's violation of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed a distinct and separate offense.

Sec. 7. All ordinances, or parts of ordinances, in conflict with this ordinance are, in so far as they are in conflict, hereby repealed.

Sec. 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in the Indianapolis Commercial, a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Copeland:

General Ordinance No. 41—1911: An ordinance regulating the operation of all musical instruments which require the deposit of coin before the same will operate.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, that it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate any musical instrument which requires the deposit of any coin in such musical instrument before it will operate, unless such person, firm or corporation intending to operate such musical instrument shall have first paid a license fee to the City Treasurer of said City of Indianapolis and procured a license therefor as hereinafter prescribed in this ordinance.

SECTION 2. Every person, firm or corporation desiring to operate any musical instrument such as is described in the first section of this ordinance shall make application in writing to the City Controller of said City of Indianapolis for a license so to do, specifying the street and house number of the building in which said person, firm or corporation intends to so operate said musical instrument.

SECTION 3. After such application shall have been granted, and before a license shall be issued thereon, such person, firm or corporation shall pay to the City Treasurer an annual license fee of two hundred dollars ($200.00), and upon presentation of the City Treasurer's receipt therefor, the said City Controller shall issue to said person, firm or corporation the license applied for. Said license shall bear date of January 1 of the year in which the same shall be issued and no reduction shall be made for any part of the year elapsed at the time of making such application for such license.

SECTION 4. No person, firm or corporation shall, by virtue of one license, operate more than one such musical instrument as described in Section 1 of this ordinance. Provided, however, that any person, firm or corporation may procure from the City Controller any number of licenses herein provided for upon the payment of the stipulated fee. And, provided further, that such person, firm or corporation may remove any musical instrument as described in Section 1 of this ordinance from one place to another in said City of Indianapolis by giving an immediate written notice to the City Controller of said city, specifying the street and house number of the building to which said removal is made.

SECTION 5. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than one dollar ($1.00) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each offense, and each day's operation of any such musical instrument as described in Section 1 of this ordinance shall be considered a separate offense.

SECTION 6. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby now repealed.

SECTION 7. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and after due publication as provided by law.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.
