Indiana International & Comparative Law Review

The Indiana International & Comparative Law Review, published by the Indiana University School of Law- Indianapolis since 1991, is a student-edited lawjournal that provides a forum for the discussion and analysis of contemporary issues in public and private international law. The Review publishesarticles by prominent legal scholars, practitioners, and policy makers from around the world, as well as student-written notes and comments.

The Review is published twice annually, with a periodic third issue devoted to a specific topic in international or comparative law. In 1994, in conjunction with the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America at Columbia University, the Review published a special issue on the political and social aspects of Italian law. In 1996, the Review published an issue addressing various aspects of Chinese law.
