

SECOND ANNUAL SPRING SEMINAR

---

INDIANA TEACHERS OF WRITING

May 13-14, 1983
Brown County
Ramada Inn

The ITW Spring Seminar features collaborative learning and a basic form of peer criticism. Participants will write descriptive outlines, a first step to effective peer criticism, and will act as peer evaluators. Experiencing this form of collaborative learning enables teachers of writing to understand the benefits of students working with each other's writing.

Leading this workshop will be Kenneth A. Bruffee, City University of New York, Brooklyn College, a well-known researcher in the areas of collaborative learning and peer tutoring. Founder and editor of the Writing Program Administrators Journal and author of A Short Course in Writing, Bruffee conducts workshops for university instructors at the CCC's and for public school teachers throughout the year. The ITW welcomes the opportunity for his leadership and encourages members to reserve May 13 and 14, 1983, for this valuable seminar.

CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

Deadlines for the next two issues of the JOURNAL OF TEACHING WRITING will be February 15 for May 1983 issue and August 15 for November 1983 issue. Please submit manuscripts well in advance of these dates.

Although articles will be published from out-of-state teachers, the Editor strongly encourages Indiana teachers of writing, from pre-school to college, to be represented in the JOURNAL. Responses or rebuttals to articles printed in the JOURNAL are strongly urged, and book reviews also will be accepted. The Editor will attempt always to have a balance of articles pertaining to each level of the curriculum.

See page 2 for editorial policy.
