

Announcing the Indiana Teachers of Writing
Sixth Annual Fall Conference

“Indiana at the Crossroads: Classroom, Curriculum, Competency”

September 26 and 27, 1986
Indianapolis Hilton-on-the-Circle

The 1986 ITW Fall Conference will engage teachers of writing at all grade levels and in all disciplines in exploring relationships among our classrooms, our curricula, and our students' competencies in written communication. The program features more than twenty-five workshops, talks, and demonstrations on topics which include developing the middle school writing lab, teaching grammar on the minicomputer, integrating language arts in the elementary classroom, teaching writing in college literature classes, a composition-based curriculum for seniors, and writing for professional publication.

Featured Speakers at General Sessions:

Plenary Session: H. Dean Evans, State Superintendent of Public Instruction

Clyde Ingle, Commissioner of Higher Education

Friday Banquet: Joseph Epstein, Editor, The American Scholar

Saturday Luncheon: Lynn E. Miller, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, South Bend Community School Corporation

Registration forms will be mailed to all ITW members in August,
1986. For further information, contact the 1986 program chair:

CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

---

The Editorial Board urges all teachers of writing to submit manuscripts, particularly those who present papers at the September conference.

Although articles will be published from out-of-state teachers, the Editor encourages Indiana teachers of writing, from pre-school to college, to be represented in the JOURNAL. Responses or rebuttals to articles printed in the JOURNAL are welcome as are book reviews. The Editor will attempt in each issue to have a balance of articles pertaining to each level of the curriculum.

See Editorial Policy for guidelines.
